One boy, Yoel, has a snake. It is long and thin and green.

It is not very nice, but it isn't dangerous. It is in a cage כלוב.

Two girls have cats. One cat is brown and white. The other cat is all black.

Five pupils have dogs. Every dog is different שונה in size and color.

But they are all good pets. Seven pupils have small birds.

One boy has three canaries. The other six have parakeets. Three children have fish.

Rachel has an aquarium outside her garden, not inside her house.

It is full of goldfish, snails and frogs. It is really very nice.

We also have animals in our classroom. We have little white mice and brown hamsters.

But they are in a cage - not all over the floor.

The very best thing we have is a soft רך, brown and white rabbit.

It's my favorite animal.

Its name is Rab Rabbit and I love to touch and pet it.

Our teacher has animals in her house, too.

She has a small dog, three birds and six monkeys. Monkeys? Oh!

There aren't monkeys in her house! She has six children.

But her children are "wild animals חיות בר" so she says she has "monkeys".

Dear Camp Director,

My name is Linda Simms and I am 17 years old. I would like to work at your camp this summer. Although I was born and have always lived in America, I understand and speak Hebrew well because my mother has spoken to me Hebrew. I also learn Hebrew at school. I love working and playing with children. On Sunday, I coach a football team for 8 and 9-year-old girls. I also babysit for many families in my neighborhood. I like to paint and I would be happy to paint with the kids at the camp.

I have always wanted to come to Israel because I have heard so much about the country. I have many relatives and friends there. I am looking forward to hearing from you.

Yours truly

Linda Simms

The Teenager New

On the first day of the school year, Jeannie woke up with a stomach-ache. She felt really sick and very weak. Today she was going to her "new" school, a half hour bus ride from her home.

It wasn't only the school that was new for Jeannie; it was the country, the Hebrew language ways of Israeli teenagers. When Jeannie arrived one hour too early, the school building looked large and unfriendly. She waited near the entrance. Pupils began arriving and pushing through the front door. They were screaming and shouting very loudly in Hebrew. Jeannie didn't understand a word. She tried asking a boy where she had to go, but he didn't understand English. She felt sick again.

Suddenly she heard a voice near her speaking in English.

"Are you new here?" She turned around and saw a boy with very red hair and a friendly smile. He was tall and he wore a green shirt, the same color as his eyes.

"Yes, she answered in a whisper"

"Well, hi! My name is Guy. Come with me" Jeannie followed the boy to the school office. "Here you are. See you later"
He smiled again and left.

"Guy" thought Jeannie. "That's a nice name for a first friend. Maybe I will see him in class. Maybe I will even sit next to him..... Maybe this new school won't be so bad after all!"

Mark Twain is one of the most popular American authors. His real name was Samuel Clemens and he lived from 1835 to 1910. He wrote many books. His two most famous books are Tom Sawyer and The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn. Both of these books are about boys growing up in a small town beside the Mississippi River. Samuel Clemens grew up in that kind of town. In these books, he wrote a lot about his own life as a boy.

When Clemens was a teenager, he left school and went to work as a printer. After that, he worked on a boat on the Mississippi River. In the 1860, Clemens went to California where he worked as a writer; he used the name Mark Twain instead of his real name. "Mark Twain" was an expression that he had learned while he was working on a boat on the Mississippi River. This expression meant that the water was deep enough for boats to pass safely.

Clemens became famous because people liked his books and stories very much.

The Clever Fox

Once a fox saw a fat black crow sitting on a tree.
The crow had a nice, big piece of cheese in its beak.
The fox was very hungry. He wanted the cheese, but could not take it. So the clever fox said to the crow:
"Dear beautiful crow. You have beautiful eyes and I know you can sing. You have a sweet voice. Please sing me."
The foolish crow was pleased. It sang "Caw, Caw."
The cheese fell down. The fox had a nice piece of cheese for dinner.

I can't find my English books; my room is such a mess. There are shoes under the table and socks on the shelf. The schoolbag is behind the bed my pens are in a box and the box is between the telephone and the football. There are magazines on my bed. There is an apple near the T.V MY red T- shirt is behind the Television. There are two umbrellas under my desk. Oh no! Where is my cat? It is in the cupboard. What a mess! Help!

Answer the questions:

1. Where are the English books?
2. Where are the pens?
3. Where is the apple?
4. Where are the two umbrellas?
5. Where is the cat?

The City of New York

New York is one of the most exciting cities in the world. You will see things that will make you think it's a wonderful place to live. If you're careful and think a lot about what you're doing, you will have an enjoyable time. I want you to learn a little about the city before you go, so please read this carefully.

The city is divided into five parts, called boroughs. The most famous borough is Manhattan because that's where all the businesses and tall buildings are. These tall buildings are called "skyscrapers" because they seem to touch the sky. Manhattan is really an island and has water all around it.

The first white people who came to New York came from Holland in 1624. They bought the island from the Indians who lived there for only $24! The name Manhattan is really an Indian name- it means 'island of hills'.

New York has many interesting things to do and you will have time to be tourists, too. There are many interesting places you can visit. My advice is to buy a guidebook about the city. I think it's a good idea for you to visit the United Nations. People from countries all over the world talk about their problems there and hope to find peace.

You will see beautiful clothing and rich people. You will see the bright lights of Broadway. But you will also see very poor people who have no homes. There homeless people sleep on sidewalks and in train stations. They carry everything they own in shopping bags. You are going to visit schools in New York City. Some of the teenagers you meet will be Jewish, but many they won't be.
