

Moral Dilemmas- The Enemy / Pearl S.Buck

1) Watch the following clip-

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=o0JUfjujdqA>

Discussion questions :

1. Have you ever been in a situation where you had to make a difficult decision?
2. How would you feel if you found a stranger in need of help?
3. Do you think it's important to help someone regardless of their nationality or background?
3. Have you ever had to keep a secret to protect someone?
4. How do you think the main character's experiences in America influenced his decision-making in the story?

2) Let's have fun with some vocabulary-

moral dilemma

enemies

Hippocratic oath

to operate on assassins

tradition

violently

sheltering an enemy

to make up your mind

frightened

loyalty

to come clean with someone maintaining one's dignity

foreigner

<https://quizlet.com/845578846/the-enemy-rules-of-war-flash-cards/?i=nuzrs&x=1qqt>

3) Expressing our opinions in writing (generated via AI-TWEE)

- 1) Some people believe that it is never justified to resort to violence, even in extreme situations. To what extent do you agree or disagree with this opinion?
- 2) The Hippocratic Oath states that doctors should "do no harm." However, there may be situations where operating on an enemy could save innocent lives. Is this a positive or negative development?
- 3) Loyalty is often seen as a virtue, but what happens when loyalty conflicts with one's moral values? Discuss with reference to real-life examples.
- 4) Assassins are often portrayed as villains, but can their actions ever be justified in certain circumstances? Discuss the ethical implications.
- 5) Tradition plays a significant role in shaping our beliefs and actions. To what extent should we adhere to tradition, even if it goes against our personal values and beliefs?

4) Playing WORDWALL

<https://wordwall.net/resource/62952669>